January - June 2007

JANUARY - JUNE 2007 EXHIBITIONS

Message from Lynn

The new year finds our artists ready to engage you in their world and offer you their very best efforts.

Our ever-growing roster is diverse and exciting. We are brimming over with selection and invite you to drop by our four West Maui locations and let our Art bring you joy.

Macario Pascual African Tulips
Oil 18" x 10" $2400

We enthusiastically invite you to attend the second annual Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational presented by "Islanders", a contemporary plein air group focusing on recording the life and landscape of Hawaii.

George Allan Kapalua Path Oil 10" x 12" $1600

This year's group of 25 leading plein air painters includes artists from Maui, Oahu, Kauai, the Big Island and Lanai along with guest artists from the Mainland. The event kick off on February 17th at The Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua, is a paint out from noon to 3pm. Starting at 4pm, this first group of freshly painted works will be available for purchase at Kapalua's Village Galleries, located off the lobby.

Following the Kapalua paint out, the artists will fan out and paint from sunrise to sunset for 5 days. See page 4 for a schedule of the week's events and our Gala Opening Reception at Village Gallery Contemporary located at 180 Dickenson Street.

JANUARY 5 - 25, 2007 • 120 DICKENSON STREET
CARLETON • KIT GENTRY

Art Night Reception: Friday, Jan.5th, 6 - 9 pm

Carleton Lahaina Racers Oil 32" x 38" $3,800

Carlton finds the light and shadow of West Maui a stimulating subject for his lively plein air oils. Recent honors include receiving the Juror's Choice for the Lahaina 2007 poster.

Special commissions are welcome. Memories will last a lifetime with an oil painting of your family enjoying a beach day on beautiful Maui.

We are proud to represent the work of this true Maui talent.

See Carleton at the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

Our first show of the 2007 in season will include paintings from Kit's California trip last summer. As we go to press, a large painting of the giant Sequoias is in progress. He has been dedicating much of his recent painting time to expansive major commissions. We are so pleased to present new works by Kit.

Join us January 5th at our festive reception for these two great artists.

Kit Gentry Kahakuloa Countryside Oil 12" x 20" $6,500

JANUARY 26 - FEBRUARY 15, 2007

120 DICKENSON STREET

BETTY HAY FREELAND • MAUI NO KA OI

Art Night Reception: Friday, January 26th, 6 - 9 pm

B. H. Freeland: Maui Splendor, Oil, 28" x 20" $4,800 Giclée Available

Betty Hay's luscious oils transport you to her Hawaii. Creating the warm evening glow or cool ocean shoreline makes her Maui come alive. So she has titled her show "Maui No Ka Oi" (Maui is the best).

Come and view her lovely new paintings at our annual exhibition and reception for one of Maui's most respected and admired artists.

See Betty Hay at the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

FEBRUARY 16 - MARCH 8, 2007

120 DICKENSON STREET

GEORGE ALLAN • PERSPECTIVES

Art Night Reception: Friday, February 16th, 6 - 9 pm

George Allan: Koi Partners, 10" x 15" Oil, $1,900

We eagerly anticipate our annual show for George. His expressions in oil can only be compared to being there. George's color jumps off the canvas and connects you to his joy for painting.

Please join us in celebrating his show which includes some works from his recent travels to South America and Asia.

See George at the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

Macario Pascual Rocky Shore, Oil, 28" x 44", $8,500

MARCH 9 - 29, 2007

120 DICKENSON STREET

MACARIO PASCUAL

Art Night Reception: Friday, March 9th, 6 - 9 pm

Macario reflects Maui's gentle atmosphere in this new body of work. His plein air works will be featured along with some studio paintings. Mac has earned his reputation as one of Hawaii's finest oil painters and we are so proud to represent him. His opening receptions are always well attended. Please make plans to join us.

See Macario at the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

MARCH 30 - APRIL 19, 2007 • 120 DICKENSON STREET

KIRK KUROKAWA

Art Night Reception: Friday, March 30th, 6 - 9 pm

Kirk Kurokawa: Hula Girls, Oil, 11" x 14", $1,500

Kirk enjoys capturing everyday life on Maui. He excels in portraiture. Recently, he won the prestigious Schaefer Portrait Challenge at the Maui Arts and Cultural Center show and has become a sought-after portrait artist.

Join us at the gala opening reception for our first one-man show for Kirk.

MAY 11 - 31, 2007 • 120 DICKENSON STREET

CONNIE ADAMS

Art Night Reception • Friday, May 11th, 6 - 9 pm

Connie Adams' watercolors are breathtaking. Her soft, glowing color releases transparent light. This show will feature a body of work that pays homage to the Hawaiian wili wili trees. Join us at this exciting artist's reception on May 11th.

Connie Adams: Fanfare 11" x 29", Watercolor, (sold) Giclée to be available

APRIL 20 - MAY 10, 2007 • 120 DICKENSON STREET

TRACY DUDLEY

Art Night Reception: Friday, April 20th, 6 - 9 pm

Tracy Dudley Oma'oma'o Orchid Acrylic 30" x 20" $2,800

Tracy takes color and composition to new heights. Her sensitive handling of subject matter is truly intriguing. We are so pleased to present Tracy's new work, and happily invite you to join us to celebrate her beautiful paintings.

Her work can also be seen at our Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua location and in the hotel's Terrace Restaurant.

Geoff Markovich Circle of Life Mixed Media 18" D, $275.

JUNE 1 - 21, 2007 • 120 DICKENSON STREET

MIXED MEDIA GROUP

Art Night Reception • Friday, June 1st, 6 - 9 pm

This group show will explore the work of artists who find the mixing of media an exciting challenge. Geoff Markovich prints his unique etchings on handmade paper. He then collages them onto cast silk and orchid paper that he sculpts in his studio.

Cecelia Rodriguez has been a part of our gallery for over 30 years. Her collages have been admired for their wonderful color and flawless paper dying techniques. She finds flowers her best subjects. Along with Cece and Geoff will be other artists working in mixed media.

C. Rodriguez Bird of Paradise Collage 24" x 12", $550.

JANUARY 12 - FEBRUARY 1, 2007 • 180 DICKENSON STREET
DAVO

Art Night Reception: Friday, January 12th, 6 - 9 pm

Davo opens our 2007 season with new works that explore a more of a three dimensional technique. Always expanding on his repertoire, he will be adding some hip hop images to this show. Davo enjoys the challenge of personal special commissions.

Come and enjoy the "Art of Davo".

Davo All You Need Is Love 48" x 48" Mixed Media $3,400

FEBRUARY 2 - 21, 2007 • 180 DICKENSON ST.
SUZY PAPANIKOLAS

Art Night Reception: Friday, February 2nd, 6 - 9 pm

S. Papanikolas Tahitian Shell Belt 30" x 40" Acrylic $4,000 Giclée Available

Although Suzy has moved to the Big Island, she will continue our annual one-woman shows.

The Merry Monarch Hula Festival is a great inspiration for her and now, living so close to the event, she can expand on her beautiful hula dancer series.

Join us to celebrate Suzy Papanikolas and her truly Hawaiian inspired works.

MARCH 2 - 22, 2007 • 180 DICKENSON ST.

PAM ANDELIN

Art Night Reception: Friday, March 2nd, 6 - 9 pm

Pam's love for vibrant color translates easily into her bold abstracts. Her layering technique with oil pastels give her work a mysterious quality. She etches and scrapes away, allowing color to come through. The State Foundation on Culture and the Arts has acquired several of her abstracts and we are excited to present this aspect of Pam's work.

Pam Andelin Chinese New Year 20" x 20" Oil $2,800

You are cordially invited to the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

Twenty - five premier plein air artists from around Hawaii and the mainland will once again converge on the island of Maui to capture its magnificent beauty and splendor en plein air.

February 17, 1 -3 pm: Watch the 25 artists paint on location at the kick-off event at The Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua. Paintings from the Kapalua paint-out will be available for purchase at Village Galleries located at The Ritz-Carlton from 4 pm, Feb.17 to February 25.

February 20, 7pm: Lecture and slide show "Impressionist Painters of California 1890-1930" by Irvine Museum Director Jean Stern at the Pioneer Inn

February 21: Maui No Ka Oi Sunset Paint Out at 505 Front St., Lahaina

February 23, 9 -11am: Starbucks Lahaina Quick Draw at Lahaina Harbor

During the week the 25 artists will choose their favorite places to paint.

February 23, 6-9pm • Friday Night Gala
Collectors and art lovers will have a first glimpse to view and purchase the fresh work.
Village Galleries Contemporary 180 Dickenson Street, Lahaina.

February 24, 9 - 11am Join us for "Coffee and Pastries with the Artists". They will be replacing sold pieces with fresh new works.

All events are free to the public and all works displayed are available for purchase at the reception and throughout the weekend.

Siam Caglayan Honolua Palms 11" x 14" Oil $1,200
Siam will join us from Kauai for the Second Maui Plein Air Painting Invitational.

MARCH 23 - APRIL 12, 2007
 CONTEMPORARY - 180 DICKENSON STREET
Art Night Reception: Friday, March 23rd, 6 - 9 pm
STUART SHARP

Stuart Sharp Shelter 30" x 40" Acrylic $1,950

Stuart Sharp lets his paintings evolve from within. Gently guiding his brush, he tenderly layers color to deepen tone and shade. His contemplative mood is set as you are drawn inside his vision.

Join us at our gala reception for this extraordinary artist.

MAY 4 - 24, 2007
 CONTEMPORARY - 180 DICKENSON STREET
MAY GROUP

Art Night Reception: Friday, May 4th, 6 - 9 pm

Suzanne de Cillia Bananas 32" x 28" Acrylic $3,400

Several artists will be grouped in this May show featuring Maui's beautiful flowers and trees. Suzanne de Cillia's beautiful acrylic was the inspiration for this show. Joining her will be Barbara Ward and Diana La Com's wonderful watercolors.

APRIL 13 - MAY 3, 2007
 180 DICKENSON STREET
*Art Night Reception:
 Friday, April 13, 6 - 9 pm*
GROUP EXHIBITION

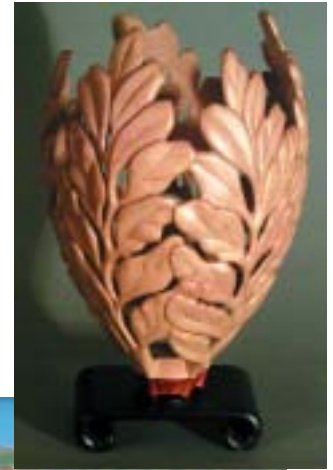

George Brinner's ability to see landscape in an abstract way gives his acrylic paintings a true individual style. His palette is subtle, but rich in tone.

An array of wood in various styles, from bowls to sculpture, will add another dimension to this fine show.

George Brinner Hailiimaile 20" x 30" Acrylic $1,500

Al Rabold Palai Hihi No. 2
 8" D X 12" H Jacaranda & Koa
 $3,000

MAY 25 - JUNE 14, 2007
 CONTEMPORARY - 180 DICKENSON STREET
FIBER GROUP

Art Night Reception: Friday, May 25th, 6 - 9 pm

Claudia Coonan Sunset on the Rocks 12" x 15" Collage $900

Claudia Coonan's collage paintings are strong in color and content. Also a fine printmaker, she combines media to achieve her final work.

Marlys Violet Spencer Artwear Coat Size L $350

Adding a contemporary look to the traditional art form will be beautiful framed quilts of Lori Apo.

Cathy Apo and Marlys Violet Spencer work together to create a lovely line of clothing. Hapi coats and men's shirts using an array of unique fabrics keep their look individual and stylish.

THE 15TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF THE ARTS
"E ola na mana" (Let the Spirit Live)
April 5 - 8, 2007

The 15th Annual Celebration of the Arts will pay tribute to the "kupuna kawa kahiko" (ancient ancestors) of Honokahua.

Village Galleries will host a special art exhibit focusing on "Honokahua Reborn" in honor of the wahi pana...sacred site. You will be able to meet gallery artists presenting painting demonstrations and many "hands-on" workshops 10am -4pm on Friday and Saturday.

Frank Andrews' petroglyph carving workshop is always a favorite during Celebration of the Arts.

Artists and Hawaiian practitioners gather from across the state to share their expertise and thoughts on what makes the Hawaiian Islands and their culture so unique. Art, music and hula workshops are to be experienced daily. As usual, the Celebration Luau will have the finest traditional foods, complimented with tasty contemporary dishes and desserts.
